Dear Phyllis: I sent you my yesterday. I sent you my booklet of vital statistics re
grandmother's (Kelen Pearson Shreeley known) bible, which contains dates of her life else, all of which pertain to Pearsons, & actual families in Bromville - Ryanville area.
I thought I had sent one of these to you before, but it must have been to Mr. —
former Bromville Mail carrier
the "one man Warren Co. 1807
mead Society", whose name
has slipped me.
I had only a few of them
made (at $2.00 each for the cover & binding only)

and have put them in libraries generally. There is one each in the Evansville Museum & Ind. Hist.
Soc. Library in Indianapolis & I would appreciate your putting this copy in Oak. Library, Boonville Library, as your contribution,
when you have looked it over.
I have only 3 left & I can hardly spare another there.

Nice to have had the most recent visit with "you-uns".

CHICAGO 14, ILL.

June 1, 1954

The following photostatic copies are taken from the Bible of my grandmother, Helen Beeson Stuckey Loomis, now in my possession, which I had received from my mother. My grandmother was the daughter of David William Beeson (Richard 5, Samuel 4, Isaac 3, Richard 2, Edward 1, the Immigrant, of New Castle, Del., Chester Co., Pa. and Nottingham Lots, Md.) and his second wife, Louisa Antoinette Rogers (John 6, Simeon 5, Nathaniel 4, John 3, Jabez 2, John 1, the Immigrant of Milford, Conn. and Newark, N. J. She was born Nov. 2, 1840 at Stanley, Warrick Co., Ind. and died Aug. 13, 1924 at Lynnville, same county and State. Her first husband was William Roberts Stuckey, son of John J. and Martha Mary Miller Stuckey, to whom she was married on Oct. 9, 1861 at Lynnville, Ind. He was killed in action at the Battle of Atlanta, Ga. on Aug. 7, 1864. She married second William Henry Loomis on July 31, 1867, in Warrick Co., Ind. He died Sept. 22, 1878 at Lynnville, Ind.

At the top of page 1 of these records are the names and birthdates of the children of David William Beeson and Louisa A. Rogers. The rest of the record relates to her two husbands, her children, grandchildren, aunts, uncles, certain neices and nephews, not arranged according to families.

I have added as a final page, the family record taken from the Bible of Richard Beeson, father of David William Beeson, which Bible is now in the possession of a great, great, grandson, Mr. Cecil Beeson, Hartford City, Ind. Richard Beeson was born in N. C. and died at Ft. Wayne, Ind. Mr. Cecil Beeson believes the name of the youngest child mentioned was TARY, whereas it is my belief the name is SARY, for Sarah. She must have died young, for no further reference to her has been found.

CAPTAIN JACOB WARRICK CHAPTER

D. A. R.

This is to certify that the attached sheets were taken from the Bible of my mother, Helen Beeson Stuckey Loomis of Lynnville, Indiana and the writing for the most part is hers. The heavier writing in ink and the notations in pencil were written by someone else. My mother was the daughter of David William Beeson and his second wife Louisa Antoinette Rogers, of Warrick County, Indiana.

This is to certify that I have examined the photostatic copies of the Family Records in the Bible of Mrs. Helen Beeson Stuckey Loomis and I find them to be correct in every detail when compared with the original ones. The copies have been traced with black ink to make them more easily read, but the original records remain untouched.
